-NOTICE-

Request for Application Number: 25-690-6000-33046

TITLE: CHILDREN’S BEHAVIORAL HEALTH EXPANSION PROJECT

PURPOSE: The Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) Behavioral Health Services (BHS) Division is seeking Applicants committed to starting up or expanding behavioral health services that integrate needs for families to support their children’s well-being and that will be supported or sustained through alternative funding streams, such as Medicaid. If selected, CYFD BHS will provide the Applicant with start-up funding to implement direct services to children, youth, and their families. To support the delivery of high-quality services, CYFD BHS is also seeking Applicants committed to sustaining behavioral health workforce training within Provider organizations. CYFD BHS encourages Providers to consider new, innovative, and engaging services that are reflective of the target population and the community in which they live. CYFD BHS also encourages Applicants to propose services, supports, and training that is new to New Mexico or a community.

The Request for Application (RFA) will document the Applicant’s proposal for service start-up or expansion and/or sustainable training plans. Applicants may apply to provide more than one service and/or training in the same application.
